

Social Studies Current Events

The current events of today will become tomorrow's history. Therefore, each student will prepare one current event to share with the class on a rotating basis each week for the rest of the school year.

You may choose an article from the newspaper or online newspaper Front page, the Local page, or the Business page (please no entertainment or sports news).

You will need to fill out the reverse side of this paper with the following information:

1. Write a five sentence summary of the article using YOUR OWN WORDS. Do Not Plagarize! Answer who, what, when, why, how about the news event.
2. Tell us why you chose this particular topic.
3. Describe how this news event compares or relates to something you've studied in past world or U.S. history
4. Describe how this new event is related to something in your life.
5. Staple the original newspaper article to your summary.
6. Present your article to the class on the Friday of the week you are assigned. If you are not ready to present on the day you pick, you will receive an "F" on this assignment.
